

Symbolic Realms

Chapel of Disease

Behind every clear image a lie
Sacrifice your live
To worlds beyond those eyes
Thieves in disguise

Never going to believe
Believe in what I see
Believe in what I breathe
I'm on the wings of eternal flame!

Longing for simplicity
For synchronicity
Symbolic realms soon to be
Just another chance for safety

You don't live what you see
Don't live what you breathe
And you'll never live me
We're on the wings of eternal flame!

Crushing words of steel
Break down on me
Reflecting nothing
That I see

Gestures - now they seed
A world beneath
Everything that was meant to be
