

Temptation

Charlene Soraia

You have a wife
She bares a child
How could I resist the temptation

In the end
There's nothing left
Here I be alone again
Breaking new hearts

You have a wife
You have a child
How could I resist temptation

You have a life
An irresistible smile
Your hand touches mine
And I melt every time

I have no life
I have no child
How could I resist temptation

I can't bare to sit beside you
What if you feel the way that I do
You've made the last few weeks so easy
I know that my brain can tease me

I can't bare to sit beside you
Thinking that you might feel the way that I do
You've made the last few weeks so easy
Oh don't tease me

You have a wife
She's bares a child
Your hand touches mine
And I melt every time

I have no life
I have no child
How could I resist temptation
Temptation

I can't bare to sit beside you
What if you feel the way that I do
You've made the last few weeks so easy
I know that my brain can tease me

Cause I can't bare to sit beside you
Feeling the way that I do
You've made the last few weeks so easy
Please do not tease me
