

Blameless

Charlie Simpson

You did things that I regret
I broke the trust we worked so hard to get
I spent the whole time hating you for that it don't feel right

There's no use taking sides
I know that I need to try

Blameless
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
All is fair in love and war that's true
But my apology is overdue and it's on my mind
Because maybe every time
I was saying it's all your fault
But maybe it's not your fault
Wasting all that time
Damn, I was so mad at you
It's something I can't undo

Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you

You said I was so unkind and that my words hurt
I was just so blind I put myself first
Thinking I was right but that's a lie

There's no use taking sides
I know that I need to try

Blameless
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
All is fair in love and war that's true
But my apology is overdue and it's on my mind
Because maybe every time
I was saying it's all your fault
But maybe it's not your fault
Wasting all that time
Damn, I was so mad at you
It's something I can't undo

Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you

Looking back I'm just as bad as you
I'm just as bad as
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
I'm just as bad as

Blameless
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
All is fair in love and war that's true
But my apology is overdue and it's on my mind
Maybe every time
I was saying it's all your fault

Well, maybe it's not your fault
But wasting all that time
Damn, I was so mad at you
It's something I can't undo, yeah

Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
Looking back I'm just as bad as you
