

For Your Love

Charlie Wilson

So blind was I not to realize
That you needed me
I'm here to try and give you everything
'Cause you made me see

Maybe for your love I would cry
And maybe for your love I would die
Just tell me what to do to prove to you
I'm serious, serious, yeah, ohh, ohh, ohh

'Cause, baby, time is not on my side
I've learned to love and with you I cry
Give anything to be with you somehow
Settle down maybe for your love

I've lost you once, yeah
And I vow that I would never lose you again
And I would never give up again
'Cause life without you is truly ain't worth living

'Cause, baby, time is not on my side
I've learned to love and with you I cry
Give anything to be with you somehow
Settle down maybe for your love

Ohh, ohh wee, babe, no I can't see, no, oh, no, no
Maybe, for your love I would die
And maybe, for your love, I would die just tell me
What to do to prove, to prove to you, I'm serious
