

Never Got Enough

Charlie Wilson

I saw yesterday you said hello smiled and went your way, oh baby
I had a crazy rush come over me, I guess my feelings never changed, no baby
And now I'm thinking back, so many memories, those were the days when love was so good to me
Wish I could change it now and build my time machine, I wanna take you back to how it used to be.

I never got enough (enough), of that lovin'
Oh oh oh those touches felt so good
I never got enough (enough) of your kissin' (ooh baby)
Oh oh ooh, those lips just taste so good

Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'
Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)
Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'
Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)

Been wondering if you've felt the same, should I just go knock on your door (Oh baby baby)
But if you got a man I wouldn't be the type to break a happy home, I'd just leave it alone
See I'm still thinking back, so many memories, those were the days when love was so good to me
Wish I could change it now and build my time machine, I wanna take you back to how it used to be.

I never got enough (enough), of that lovin'
Oh oh oh those touches felt so good
I never got enough (enough) of your kissin' (ooh baby)
Oh oh ooh, those lips just taste so good

Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'
Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)
Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'
Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)

And there's no doubt about it
That our past is affecting me
And I don't want to fight it
See I never got enough of your, I wish I had a little bit more of your Love

Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'
Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)
Oh I never got enough, never ever got enough of your lovin'

Never really got enough of your love (never got enough)
