

Neverbirth

Charon

She's like a star for me, burning leafs burning me She's just a drop in the sea, and her eyes what I can't believe I think she's watching me with her eyes of seventeen
Back to the shape of my shadow
I use my skill to live

Darkness my only friend, she must be slippin' away
Closing me like a beam Shadows begin to fade, they're like a night and day

She watch me slowly by Her spirit stronger than mine oh lord, how bored I am...

She sucked me end to the end and way she speak was so...was so grand For that I ever represent dies with shadow of the dead.

Then killed her best I can for the Love I hate I rape my will to be no longer hate no grief.

Back to the shape of my shadow
I shall once return
And everything of me
was NEVER aim to be...
and everything of me
was NEVER aim to be...
