

Roxanne

Chase Atlantic

Tell me your name
I don't ever wanna let you down
No, I just wanna kiss your lips in the rain
And know I'll pull you closer if you start to drown, drown, drown
Then my hand meets your thighs
With that look in your eyes
I can never forget
Then it's back to my room
What a wonderful view, love
And that's when I said, no

Roxanne
Why you wanna leave me on my own now?
Roxanne
I think we should go but I'm not sure enough

Roxanne
I'll drive us somewhere far away from out of town
Now I'm falling deep within your eyes like cocaine
I'm hoping that you'll be there when I'm coming down, down, down
And girl you know that you gotta believe me
Now, now
And girl you know that we have to try
No say

Roxanne
Why you wanna leave me on my own now?
Roxanne
I think we should go but I'm not sure enough

And now it's burnt in my mind
That you left me a sign
With your lips and your thighs
You pull them closer to mine
Well, Roxanne
Why you wanna leave me, leave me?
Roxanne

Roxanne, Roxanne
Why you wanna leave me, leave me on my own?
Leave me, leave me?
Roxanne

And now it's burnt in my mind
That you left me a sign
With your lips and your thighs
You pull them closer to mine
Roxanne
I think we should go but I'm not sure enough
