

Unforgettable

Chase Rice

Wasn't hello, it wasn't goodbye
It's everything in between that hangs in my mind
Got your [?] on my dashboard
Your flip flops on my floorboard
Your scratch-offs that you asked for
Your tire marks on my carport

I, I never would've wrote you a love song
Would've told you to keep all of your clothes on
Would've never turned you on like late night TV
As you talk to, dirty old silly me
I, would've never been a stand-up guy
Should've stood you up the very first night
And girl, I would've never let you go
Had I known that you'd be so, unforgettable
Unforgettable, unforgettable

Then [?], anything Tennessee
Tin roof, cheap whiskey
Ignites your memory
Like every Jeep, I sleep on the road
I slow on down, and secretly hope
I see your face through the window
Whoah

I, I never would've wrote you a love song
Would've told you to keep all of your clothes on
Would've never turned you on like late night TV
As you talk to, dirty old silly me
I, would've never been a stand-up guy
Should've stood you up the very first night
And girl, I would've never let you go
Had I known that you'd be so, unforgettable
Unforgettable, unforgettable

Oh baby, you're unforgettable
Irreplaceable, undeniable, beautiful
It's unforgettable
Irreplaceable, undeniable, that beautiful soul
So unforgettable

I, I never would've wrote you a love song
Would've told you to keep all of your clothes on
Would've never turned you on like late night TV
As you talk to, dirty old silly me
I, would've never been a stand-up guy
Should've stood you up the very first night
And girl, I would've never let you go
Had I known that you'd be so, unforgettable
Unforgettable, unforgettable
