

I'm waiting

I'm here now let's live it up let's tear these walls down then build them up if the times right then why wait will we exist for another day

Do we really know how to live?
Do we live a forgiven sin?
Do we really know how to live?
Our God-given gift

Is it all for nothing

Maybe I'm wrong
But nothings the same
All for nothing living this way
Erase me
I'm waiting for something to change
All for nothing living this way
Just erase me

Are we really about the hate
Am I wrong
Am I just late
It seems were about the hate
I'm not wrong

It's about that time that I should move along
I gotta find my own way now
I'm on my way to figuring this one out

Maybe I'm wrong
But nothings the same
All for nothing living this way
Erase me
I'm waiting for something to change
All for nothing living this way
Just erase me

limit yourself with walls do we know life at all I've been standing so strong let's move on
The weights adding up on me at the point

Is it all for nothing

Maybe I'm wrong
But nothings the same
All for nothing living this way
Erase me
I'm waiting for something to change
All for nothing living this way
Just erase me

Do we really know how to live?
We live a forgive sin?
Do we really know how to live?
Our God-given gift
