

The wound is festering, now rotting off my flesh
Spreads like a cancer, poisoning the heart of
Who I am
Suffocating me

Your eyes they call to me
They keep on giving me everything
Your eyes they call to me
This pain has swallowed me

Rip it out
Rip it out of me
Rip it out
You can watch me bleed

You held my head and whispered everything to see
How could I know that I was just a pawn? Fuck you

Your eyes they call to me
They keep on telling me what to think
Your eyes they call to me
This pain has swallowed me

Cut it off clean, let the blood drain out
Loving you is like salt in the wound
Cut it off clean, let the blood drain out
Loving you is like salt in the wound

Rip it out
Rip it out of me
Rip it out
You can watch me bleed

Your eyes they call to me
This pain has swallowed me
