

It'll get you on the last bus home get you at the discount bend it'll get you on the old dance floor get you as the party ends

Oh 4am, is the time when you were mine frozen in deepest sleep, for only i to keep now there ain't no hiding place on earth that loneliness ain't been first

It'll get you hanging out your clothes get you as you wash your hair it'll get you as your're making plans catch you trying to climb the stairs

frozen in deepest sleep, watching the morning creep

hard times, hole in my heart, who stole the sun and left me alone again
give me a guiding light, a stretch of sky and a hand on my shoulder singing
hard times, hole in my heart, who stole the sun and
my shoulder

Oh 4am is the time when were mine frozen in deepest sleep, for only i to keep now there ain't no place on earth
That loneliness ain't been first

Oh no, there ain't no hiding place on earth that loneliness ain't been first, been first, been first
