

Where Are You Now

Chester See

Your eyes, windows heaven
Your laugh, steels my attention
You're everything, that I've been searching for

We've never met, you're just in my dreams
But I know that you're looking for me
We'll know at the moment we meet

Where are you now
Do you need to be found
Are you lost in the crowd and I'm passing you
Am I moving too fast for you
Cause I'll slow down
Where are you now
I'm screaming out loud
Hopelessly thinking you'll hear me
And come running to me but you're not around
Where are you now
Oh, where are you now

Your smile, makes me do the same in your laugh
It take me away cause you're everything
That I've been searching for

We've never met, you're just in my dreams
But I know that you're looking for me
We'll know at the moment we meet

Where are you now
Do you need to be found
Are you lost in the crowd and I'm passing you
Am I moving too fast for you
Cause I'll slow down
Where are you now
I'm screaming out loud
Hopelessly thinking you'll hear me
And come running to me but you're not around
Where are you now
Oh, where are you now

Where are you now
Oh, where are you now

Where are you now
I'm screaming out loud
Hopelessly thinking you'll hear me
And come running to me but you're not around
Where are you now
