

Why Won't You Smile

Chester See

Is it something on the ground
Cos it's sunshine all around
Don't you wanna see it
Is there something I could say
That'll make it all okay
And help you to believe it

I feel so weak
Watching you sink

Why won't you smile
Just for a little while
Just for a moment
You can show it, it's alright
Why won't you smile
Give it a try
Just let it shine
Oh why won't you smile

Your tears have gone away
They leave you with the stains
There's no denying
You hide behind your hair
and your bitter broken stare
I know that you've been crying

What did you lose
What can I do

So the world can see
Smile, if not just for me
Oh smile
Ooh

Ooh
Why won't you smile
