

Trav'lin' Light

Chet Baker

I'm travilin light
Because my girl has gone
So from now on I'm travilin' light

she said "Goodbye"
And took my heart away
So from today
I'm travilin' light

No one to see
I'm free as the breeze
No one but me
And my memories

Some lucky night
She may come back again
so until then
I'm travilin' light

No one to see
I'm free as the breeze
No one but me
and my memories

Some lucky night
Je may come back again
So until then
I'm travilin light
