

It's Not You

Chet Faker

So you told yourself at night to remember
That it's enough but it's not the best
Then you can't complain darling
If it isn't love then take this off my chest
And I'll find a way darling
Just enough for me to be my very best
And I'll try to stay darling
Just enough for us to be just friends

And now don't you realize
I've been on my own
Out here with my green eyes
I've been acting cold

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You

So you sold yourself a lie you remembered
Remembered all you dreamed of
So I'd fade away
For some kinda feeling
But you signed a waiver
Written all across my chest
Guess I'd be okay darling
If you let me love, let me do my very best

And now don't you realize
I've been on my own
Out here with my green eyes
I've been acting cold

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You

But it's not
You
You
You
