

Low

Chet Faker

Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out
Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out

Look, whatever, I'm good
It's doesn't mean that I'm perfect
Still I gotta find purpose
In whatever I've done
Like whatever I should
Doesn't mean that I'm worth this
I don't know if it's worthless
Just to sing a damn song

So what if I don't tell? (Don't)
What if I do it?
What if I see you all in hell?
So what if it's not real?
And what if I'm still here?
So what if a fire is just a light for you to get know?

Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out
Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out

You know I think you look good
For whatever it's worth, yeah
I think you got purpose
I think you got song
You know I think that you should
Do whatever is worth it
Just to get to that place there
I don't think it takes long

So what if I don't tell?
And what if I do it?
What if I see right through it waiting to call?
So what if it's not real?
And what if I'm still here?
So what if a fire is just a light for you to get know?

Just because I feel low, right now (Just because I feel low, right now)
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out (It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out)
Just because I feel low, right now (Just because I feel low, right now)
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out (It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out)

Right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out (Ayy)
Just because I feel low, right now (Ayy, ayy)
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out (Yeah, yeah)
Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out
Just because I feel low, right now
It doesn't mean all that I've got has run out
