

An Ocean Apart

Chicane

It's so hard to watch me fall
I get back up and stop [?] for once more
'Cause we're an ocean apart
I stand and stare and hope you hear my heart
It's been so hard to let you go
Stuck in a world of heartache, every day
I'm on this journey now alone
Pray this will end bring you back to home

A love too deep to say goodbye
We'll have our time together, you and I
'Cause you just stop to wait for me
I won't be long, my darling, pray you'll see

We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean
We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean apart
We're an ocean

Someday in brighter skies
Until then, I'll [?] hopefully
'Cause we're an ocean apart
I stand and stare and hope you hear my heart
