

Hello Hello

Chikinki

It's good! It's goodbye to the crumbling snow and hello, hello to the friends I know.

Away everyday was a game to play but now I'm home
I don't know how to stay.

Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.

I lose, every which way I lose.
When I'm with you, there's nothing left to do.
Is this the end, the end of the story now.
'Cause when I'm with you there's nothing left to do.
Although I burnt my cotton wool.

I guess I'll have to rearrange my tools so
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.

And they've mixed and muddled up all the things I know.
Was it here I spoke to you all that time ago.
I'll know I'll want to leave again but I'm glad here with you 'til then. So..

Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
Hello hello little world of my own,
I was happy away but I'm glad to be home.
