

Born In Blood

Chimaira

Born in blood spawned of ignorance damned from the start hatred violence vengeance Dragged through the mud, survived the flood, we proved them wrong, the masses have been silenced have been silenced
There is no more doubt (no more doubt)
There is no more doubt (no more doubt)
We won the war inside our minds nothing can stop us now Rage growing stronger,
nothing can stop us now Strength rising conquer,
nothing can stop us now
We stand alone, in a blood soaked wilderness, ruling the night, free from persecution slaughtering all those who wronged us we feel attacks the feel has been lifted has been lifted
There is no more doubt (no more doubt)
There is no more doubt (no more doubt)
We won the war inside our minds
nothing can stop us now Rage growing stronger,
Strength rising conquer,
These battered, broken hands will be forged to iron fists to burn this worthless world to pound the weak into guts the weight of the world can't stop me now for I hold it in the palm of my hand this universe is ours to be claimed there's no love there's no pity fuck it all barriers have been erased we're involved with the dead in an end who dream nothing coming of this master plan we're going to live where nothing is alive
There is no more doubt (no more doubt)
Rage growing stronger,
Strength rising conquer,
nothing
