Born in blood spawned of ignorance damned from the start hatred violence vengeance Dragged through the mud, survived the flood, we proved them wrong, the masses have been silenced have been silenced There is no more doubt (no more doubt) There is no more doubt (no more doubt) We won the war inside our□ minds nothing can stop us now Rage growing stronger, nothing can stop us now Strength rising conquer, nothing can stop us now We stand alone, in a blood soaked wilderness, ruling the night, free from persecution slaughtering all those who wronged us we feel attacks the feel has been lifted has been lifted There is no more doubt (no more doubt) There is no more doubt (no more doubt) We won the war inside our□ minds nothing can stop us now Rage growing stronger, nothing can stop us now Strength rising conquer, nothing can stop us now These battered, broken hands will be forged to iron fists to burn this worthless world to pound the weak into guts the weight of the world can't stop me now for I hold it in the palm of my hand this universe is ours to be claimed there's no love there's no pity fuck it all barriers have been erased we're involved with the dead in an end who dream nothing coming of this master plan we're going to live where nothing is alive where nothing is alive There is no more doubt (no more doubt) There is no more doubt (no more doubt) We won the war inside our□ minds nothing can stop us now Rage growing stronger, nothing can stop us now Strength rising conquer, nothing can stop us now nothing
