

Vacation From Love

Chinawoman

my phone is off
I'm morning drunk
the place is a mess I'm doing whatever I want

no one's asking for dinner no one's getting upset I'm reminded again
of who I was when we met

vacation from love
vacation from love
vacation from love
I'm on vacation

how I've missed my friends how I've missed silence those thoughts that just don't come when you're next to someone

I'm writing a lot
catching up on smut
my dreams have returned telling me: watch out

vacation from love
vacation from love
vacation from love
I'm on vacation

you fell in love with a loner you fell in love with a stoner you want to see me everyday and still expect a boner miserable couples on the bus we used to say: thank god that's not us now I'm hiding out

trying to figure it out

vacation from love
vacation from love
vacation from love
I'm on vacation

I keep picturing your face in the hall at my old place when I'd open the door I couldn't ask for more

but new silence brings joy like once brought company when loneliness sets in do it all again

vacation from love
vacation from love

vacation from love
I'm on vacation

it may be a sad fate for one who needs so much space but the wiring is done maybe I'll find the right one again I've done something wrong you're mad that I don't respond but I'm on vacation

vacation from love
vacation from love
vacation from love
I'm on vacation
