

Woman's Touch

Chinawoman

The light has shone on you tonight
But I'll go walking through the darkened streets alone
And fall asleep with a smile
Saving my pennies cause the oracle told me so

ooooh -
I've learned to trust my head to turn
ooooh -
For the feature presentation

I know your ex from mexico
Taught you something that I have never seen before
But efficiency is not the goal
I'll trade the magician for the eager clumsy soul

ooooh -
And soon my head is gonna turn
ooooh -
Right into the next dimension

The light has shone on you tonight
But I'll go walking through the darkened streets alone
And fall asleep with a smile
Saving my pennies cause the oracle told me so

The ship is near and I'm on time
By being alone needing a woman's touch tonight
The ship is near and I'm on time
By being alone needing a woman's touch tonight
