

Angriest Young Men (We're The)

Chixdiggit!

Hey I'm so angry that I can't stand it my girlfriend left me, I'll write some poetry and listen to my primus record collectio n I'm so angry,
I think I'll start a band hey you can slap the bass,
And I'll stretch out my face and swing our hair around until we all get erections I don't know,

What's wrong with the world today hey it's fucked up, That's all that we got to say we're the angriest you men in the world [Repeat: x3]
Don't you see we're the angriest you men in the world [Repeat:
x3]
