

On Fire

Chokehold

Waving you flag like I should kneel down and pray
I don't give a fuck about your colour or nationality
You preach about power, you're white and you're pure
You're the kind of idiot your country prefers
Too ignorant and blind to see their lies
Through their corruption the truth they hide
Honour the flag, and nation of liars
Watch me show my hate as I light it on fire
Too blind to see I'm on fire
Too proud to see I'm on fire
