

Love You Better

Chris Crocker

I know I maybe not what you want
But, I could give you what you need
And, that's why I wrote you this song
So here it goes.

Where do I go from here
These feelings that I fear
Should I just make it clear
Can I even hide it
I know I'm really not his type
But I can't win him if I never try
My mind is saying no but my heart's already decided

Does he just see my face
When will there be a day
When he will look my way
With no compromises
I always gotta be myself 'cause
Even if I got no one else
Can you see me
Can you hear me
Look past my disguises

No one could ever love you better
Let me show you what I can see
No one could ever know you better
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me

The way you laugh out loud
As fake as it may sound
You were lost and now you're found
Don't you roll your eyes back
Even if I'm not what you wanted
Gotta admit there's something 'bout it
Can you see me
Can you hear me
Look past my disguises

No one could ever love you better
Let me show you what I can see
No one will ever know you better
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me

Can't you see
Now my make-up is disappearing

I'm yours until you leave
Just take me as I am
Or set me free

No one could ever love you better
(No one)
Let me show you what I can see
No one will ever know you better
(No one, yeah)
Let me show you what's underneath

When you think about the future
Gonna be with some loser
All they have is some pretty and shiny teeth

No one could ever love you better, than me
