

Wild Love

Chris Isaak

I told you romance, this is your last chance.
Why stand and whisper, go up and take her love.
Why stand and tell her, how much you love her.
You know you want her, there'll be no other love.
Love.....Wild love! Love.....Wild love!

If you want her love, tell her that you want it all.
If you want her love, tell her that you want it all.

I told you romance, this is your last chance.
Go up and show her, there'll be no other love.
Love.....Wild love! Love.....Wild love!
