

Cowboy's Prayer

Chris LeDoux

The raindrops fall on my camper the lightening crashes and lights the sky
I look at the window sprayed with raindrops I see her face and I see her smile
Never before have I needed someone this rode was my home and I loved it there
But now you come into my life asnd tonight alone I say a prayer
Oh Lord let her stay my woman oh God above she's all I've got
This road I've traveled is no companion my woman's love is all I want
Oh Lord let her stay...
