

Echo

Chris Mann

In the end we are mirrors
Searching for our reflection
Looking for our answer
Without question, you're mine

The space between every word
Is where I want to be heard
Watching you is a wonder
Cause that's where I see myself

You, you are my voice I am your echo (I am your echo)
Oh, even with you, silence feels special (Silence feels special)
For the first time, I let go
For the first time, I am whole
You, you are my voice I am your echo

When we touch, it's like praying
Moving through new dimensions
Meditate while you're saying
Words I already know

Give me all the love that you can and I'll bounce it back again
Watching you is a wonder
Cause that's where I see myself

You, you are my voice I am your echo (I am your echo)
Oh, even with you, silence feels special (Silence feels special)
For the first time, I let go
For the first time, I am whole
You, you are my voice I am your echo

I am your echo
I am your echo
I am your echo
I am your echo
I am your echo
Echo, echo (echo)

In the end we are mirrors
Searching for our reflection
Looking for our answer
Without question, you're mine

You, you are my voice I am your echo
Oh, even with you, silence feels special
For the first time, I let go
For the first time, I am whole
You, you are my voice I am your echo
I am your echo
I am your echo
I am your echo
