Cryin' Time

It's cryin' time again Why did I let it go It seems we never win Don't wanna lose again Oh no Now I've ruined everything And there's nothing left to show How can I begin To make you love again I don't know Didn't mean to hurt you baby But what am I to do To make you forgive the times that I lied to you, oh 'Cos it's Cryin' time, Cryin' time, Cryin' time again There's so much I wanna say Oh I don't know where to start Now everything has changed I can't take away the pain from your heart If only I could make you see Oh how do I begin To turn back the hands of time and start out again, oh 'Cos it's Cryin' time, Cryin' time, Cryin' time again Cryin' time, Cryin' time, Cryin' time again ....
