

It's Alright

Chris Norman

Little darlin' why so sad
Do you need someone to tell
Has the world gone treat you bad
Feel you're drowning in a wishing well

Under the moonlit sky
You gave your heart away
Now he's gone you don't know why
Won't be back for many a day

Do you think you need someone you can turn to Someone to lean upon if you want to Come to your daddy's arms
I'll wipe away your tears
I'll tell you baby it's alright

If you feel you need someone here beside you
Anytime you want me near just to hold you
Run to you daddy's arms
I'll wipe away your tears
I'll tell you baby it's alright
