

Love Is A Bridge Between Two Hearts

Chris Norman

We walked to the dark side
But we couldn't find a way out
Endless discussions
Both of us were helpless and proud

And though we talked to each other
We just fought with words
Losing emotions
Now we know it hurts

Hold me tight
Life's not life without you
Whatever you may feel - I feel it too

Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
You gotta build it when love starts
And we'll get through
Me and you
Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
Made out of many different parts
It's all you give
It's all you take

Sometimes mixed emotions
Make you lose your self control
The tears you're cryin'
Like blue pearls in your soul

And at the cross roads of passion
Never say good bye
But all or nothing
Is just a stupid lie

Hold me tight
Life's not life without you
Whatever you may feel - I feel it too

Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
You gotta build it when love starts
And we'll get through
Me and you
Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
Made out of many different parts
It's all you give
It's all you take

Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
You gotta build it when love starts
And we'll get through
Me and you
Love - love is a bridge between two hearts
Made out of many different parts
It's all you give
It's all you take
