

Ruby Lips

Chris Norman

It takes a lot of courage
To go to a girl and tell her: "Hi it's me"
I wanna get to know you
Would you be so kind
And please don't turn away

I was never that courageous
I was a little to shy
I guess I missed a lot of chances
I have seen them walk on by

Oh, any other girl in the whole wide world
Don't mean that much to me
But what does it bring
When every time I see you

I let you walk away
I guess I'm not that courageous
I am a little to shy
I missed another chance
When I let you walk on by

Lady, some day I will go crazy
'Cause your ruby lips
They amaze me
Someday I will go crazy
When I see another may
Kiss your ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips

All my friends
They tell me what to do
When ever you should walk on by
But no one tells me what to do
When you really smile at me

I guess I'm not that courageous
I am a little to shy
I see another chance
And let it walk on by

Lady, some day I will go crazy
'Cause your ruby lips
They amaze me
Someday I will go crazy
When I see another may
Kiss your ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips

Lady, some day I will go crazy
'Cause your ruby lips
Someday I will go crazy

When I see another may
Kiss your ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips
Ruby lips

Ruby lips
They are just for me
But I'm not courageous
So I wait and see
Another man comes and steal you away
Oh, no, no, no
