She laughs too much, she talks too loud
She acts like she's indifferent
You'd see her face in any crowd
She's not so insignificant
In her high heeled shoes and her long black hair
She'll tell you it's irrelevant
And where she goes you know she's there
She talks like she's intelligent
And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly
She won't wait or hang around
She says that she's too busy
I'm floatin high above the clouds
She makes me feel so dizzy
And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly
Stand in the rain
Take off your shoes again
I couldn't stand the pain
But I didn't know it
She laughs too much, she talks too loud
She acts like she's indifferent
You'd see her face in any crowd
She's not so insignificant
And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
She knows how to fly
And she knows how to fly
She knows how to move me
She knows how to fly
```

She knows how to fly
