

Tears Run Dry

Chris Norman

Tell me why your smile has faded
Why you always look so sad
Tell me why you're acting jaded
Surely it can't be that bad

You say you've found that love can hurt you
In ways that you never knew
You vowed to never fall again
I hope that isn't true
I know that isn't true

'Cause tears run dry
Even though you said goodbye
Even though your heart is breaking
It's aching
Don't ask me why
But tears run dry
And I wanna be the one to try
To lighten up your day and bring out that smile
No matter how dark the sky
Tears run dry

All you gotta do is call me
And I'll be right there by your side
I know that you've got things to tell me
But first you've got to swallow your pride
You always try to be the strong one
But tonight you can lean on me
I know it looks impossible
But soon enough you'll see

'Cause tears run dry
Even though you said goodbye
Even though your heart is breaking
It's aching
Don't ask me why
But tears run dry
And I wanna be the one to try
To lighten up your day and bring out that smile
No matter how dark the sky
Tears run dry

Life is curious
So mysterious
People come and go
There's no holding on
When all that you had is gone
I don't know how it is done

'Cause tears run dry
Even though you said goodbye
Even though your heart is breaking
It's aching
Don't ask me why
But tears run dry
To lighten up your day and bring out that smile

No matter how dark the sky
