

Tell Me Why

Chris Norman

Is there something that I've said or done
That changed the look in your eyes
'Cos it's hard to be sure of you lately
Tell me why
Everything I do seems wrong
Oh I know that you criticize
Baby why do you act like you hate me?
Tell me why

So tell me why little lady
Don't you tell me it's nothing
Now you don't want my loving
Tell me why
Tell me why little baby
Now you don't want my kissing
Feel that something is missing
Tell me why

Well, we used to be so close
But now we're turning away
We don't talk any more to each other
Tell me why
And you'll never know how much
I long for yesterday
Have you given your heart to another?
Tell me why

So tell me why little lady
Don't you tell me it's nothing
Now you don't want my loving
Tell me why
Tell me why little baby
Now you don't want my kissing
Feel that something is missing
Tell me why

So tell me why little lady
Don't you tell me it's nothing
Now you don't want my loving
Tell me why
Tell me why little baby
Now you don't want my kissing
Feel that something is missing
Tell me why
