

Which Part Of The Painting Made You Cry?

Chris Rea

Was it the eyes that told the truth
Or the lips that told the lie?
Was it the heart of your very soul
You had always denied.

Which part of this painting made you cry.
Which part showed your secret so deep inside.
The part, that you'd always denied.
Which part of the picture made you cry?

Was it the way at once
Or the way it could have been
The part of you, you'd always kept unseen.
The hurt that you'd always let go by
What you really were for so long
Always denied.

The part that showed your secret deep inside

Which part of the painting made you cry?
