

Fog Lights

Chris Travis

I just wanna feel so high in the sky
I don't wanna feel when I die, I'm alright
I just want to see you if you want me tonight
Girl I'm your knight in shining armor for life

Come and be my queen, promise to treat you right
Travel to the moon in the speed of the light
And I ain't tripping baby cause we do this for the nights
The pain in my voice paint the image to the eyes

You rap niggas false and you stay telling lies
Your fans brainwashed by your image of disguise
You crumble with that shit and get punched in the mouth
And I don't give a fuck about you, I run the underground

It's Chris fucking Travis boy I'm years in now
I'm headed to the top of the tower of my town
I'm riding past the cops, I gotta put my blunts down
I just want to smoke and ride around on the prowl

I'm posted watching niggas boy I'm looking like an owl
And every time we say she where we fuckin on two towels
I tell my niggas keep it true and fuck being wild
Cause I know them pigs want to see us fall down

Got to walk the streets big mug no smile
Cause down in my city niggas ain't gon' see a trail
This shit gang crazy, mommas tears falling down
Everything she did but the feds got her child

I just want to go and escape in the wild
I just want a flow and escape in the sounds
I just want to smoke and escape from her now
I just want to go and escape from this town

I just want to feel so high in the sky
I just want to feel so high in the sky
I don't want to feel when I die, I'm alright
I just want to feel so high in the sky

I just want to feel so high in the sky
I don't want to feel when I die, I'm alright
I just want to see you if you want me tonight
Girl I'm your knight in shining armor for life

Come and be my queen, promise to treat you right
Travel to the moon in the speed of the light
And I ain't tripping baby cause we do this for the nights
The pain in my voice paint the image to the eyes
