

Miss Me When I'm Gone

Chris Travis

I got my mind on that money
And that money on my mind
And bitches ain't shit
Cause all they do is waste time
But I still love you baby
I just gotta get my grind
And yeah I know you miss me
Cause I stay up on yo mind
And yeah I know I'm wrong
And you tired of all my lies
But it's all good baby
Gone and open up them thighs
And let me hit and quit it
And eat you like some apple pie
I know you love a nigga girl, you ain't gotta lie
And this is for the goddesses to play while they high
And you can sip my drink when yo mouth gettin dry
And yeah it's medicated
And you feelin like ahhhhh
And she be like damn that shit take a deepside
And shed away them tears girl you ain't gotta cry
And stop with all that frontin cause I on wanna say bye
She said okay and looked me right into my eyes
I know she wanna fuck, she ain't gotta say that line

I'm ridin round the city and she blowin up my phone
She don't want a nigga there but miss me when I'm gone
And ion give a damn cause I'm gone off this strong
But a nigga head back cause ion want her alone

I'm ridin round the city and she blowin up my phone
She don't want a nigga there but miss me when I'm gone
And ion give a damn cause I'm gone off this strong
But a nigga head back cause ion want her alone

She give a nigga all her love
But sometimes I don't feel it
And we always argue
Till she be like baby, kill it
And I give her that pain
And she wanna pop a pill
And I be some other shit, my mind on them millions
But I'm just trynna get it in a 30 foot ceiling
And that's why I'm rapping
Cause I won't make it dealing
And she respect that
That's why a nigga love her
She down with a nigga
And she down for the struggle
And yeah that's my baby
And she get it from her mother
But I don't get to close
Cause she know that I don't trust her
And if she every cross me
Then she know its muthafuck 'em
And she be gettin drunk
And wondering why I don't fuck her

Cause bitch you out yo mind
If I can't use this rubber
And she my main bitch so of course I don't drug her
But she be getting high
Cause she think that I don't love her
And that's a damn lie
Cause girl we fuck under covers

I'm ridin round the city and she blowin up my phone
She don't want a nigga there but miss me when I'm gone
And ion give a damn cause I'm gone off this strong
But a nigga head back cause ion want her alone

I'm ridin round the city and she blowin up my phone
She don't want a nigga there but miss me when I'm gone
And ion give a damn cause I'm gone off this strong
But a nigga head back cause ion want her alone
