This night
this belief
suicidal curse
the priest
are screaming in chorus thirsting
the don't breakup the night

This night
a lonely scream
dies faithful in the moon the naked wrapped
with thorny grass
three crosses
soiled the dawn

The priest are here
the worship the crosses at dawn and the sacrifice
becomes the truth
in their hands

One can see the night in the fire it's a crusade without belief being strong enough to lift a stone to lift to the sky my blood...

Wich is drink in brain pans it's a drink of lonelyness the ritual of a crime my blood is a joy for the masters the corpse the gods food

So fuck my thoughts rape my dreams and cut my veins and drink, drink

Die with me
