

One More Shot

Christian Kane

Well I've got this old TV
That you left behind.
And I've got a better me
It took so long to find.
And I've got a lot of nerve
To ask you back at all.
And I put this picture of you and me
On the hole in the wall.

Ain't touched a bottle in so long
'Cause now the only thing I ain't got
Was kinda hoping you'd prove me wrong
And give me one more shot, give me one more shot.

Well, I've got this old shag rug
We used to crawl on.
And I've got this telephone
You used to call me on.
But since that last goodbye
Well, that phone don't ring.
I've got this empty home
Filled with so many things.

Ain't touched a bottle in so long
'Cause now the only thing I ain't got
Was kinda hoping you'd prove me wrong, yeah
And give me one more shot, give me one more shot.
Oh, give it to me.

Just one more shot.
