

I'm a very lonely man
And I live from day to day
Watching life go by my door
Never pausing for delay

I'm suspended in a dream
Like an actor in a play
Crossing endless boundaries
To another time and place

So climb aboard and set the sail
Join me on my treasure trail
We're sailing round and round in circles
Living in a fairytale
Yes climb aboard, come sail with me
On this ship of fools we'll be
You don't need to be afraid
It's only just a fairytale

Climb the spiral staircase
To a land of make believe
Walk on gilded splinters
To escape reality

Fly your silver spaceship
To the mountains of the moon
Close your eyes and count to 10
We can be there pretty soon

So climb aboard and set the sail
Join me on my treasure trail
We're sailing round and round in circles
Living in a fairytale
Yes climb aboard, come sail with me
On this ship of fools we'll be
You don't need to be afraid
It's only just a fairytale
