

Man Of Many Faces

Christie

When you look in my direction
Will you tell me what you see
Can you see your own reflection
In a face you've never seen
Do the eyes look full of sorrow
With the tears of yesterday
You don't even know my name
You don't know what's in my brain
You might think you recognise me, but you're wrong

I'm a man of many faces
And I'm changing all the time
I'm a man of many faces
Which one is mine
I'm a man of many faces
Can you see through my disguise
I'm a man of many faces
Tell me which one is mine

Well you say that I remind you
Of a person you once knew
And in your imagination
You might really think I do
If I told you my life story
Would you change your point of view
You don't even know my name
You don't know what's in my brain
You might think you recognise me, but you're wrong

I'm a man of many faces
And I'm changing all the time
I'm a man of many faces
Which one is mine
I'm a man of many faces
Can you see through my disguise
I'm a man of many faces
Tell me which one is mine
