

My Baby's Gone

Christie

Feel so lonely down in this heart of mine
Feel so lonely that I think I could die
All by myself in this hotel room
No-one to talk to, I got nothing to do

Oh yeh, hooooo

Look out my window, all I can see is rain
Feel so bad I think I'm going insane
My baby's gone and I don't know why
Don't know the reason, she just said goodbye

Oh-ooh, I'm broken in two
I'm feeling blue, my baby's gone
Oh-ooh, I'm broken in two
I'm feeling blue, my baby's gone

Don't know what time it is, is it day or night
Feel so confused, I don't know what's wrong or right
All I can tell ya is that I'm feeling down
My baby's gone, made me look like a clown

Oh yeh, hey

Oh-ooh, I'm broken in two
I'm feeling blue, my baby's gone
Oh-ooh, I'm broken in two
I'm feeling blue, my baby's gone
