

Nice To Know

Chroma Key

saw her at a red light headlights flashing like shooting stars in the fast lane like an airplane never saw the tail light windshield cracked like an insight was a long flight but i'm alright now i can tell you're falling

it's nice to know

oh no there you go now i won't be home for the late show sorry about the window what a nice throw sometimes i can see that you finally got me where you want me guess i can't complain though 'cause i can't go home
