

Burning Bridges

Chromatics

When your tears fall down
On the cold cold ground
And you've walked to the edge of this town
When you've burned all your bridges
And vanished in the mist
When the road is long
And your heart is sick

It's time to burn it down
It's time to turn it around
You've been a fool again
Don't run away again
'Cause I'm a fool for you
'Cause I'm a fool for you

You've been a fool again
Don't run away again
'Cause I'm a fool for you
'Cause I'm a fool for you
