

Candy

Chromatics

because they'll try to put out every fire you start

you can light the match again and as they try to run and hide we'll burn down everything in sight

oh, candy
your touch is like a veil over my eyes and when we're driving in your car i could be anyone tonight

oh, candy
because they'll try to steal that flame from in your eyes

oh, candy
oh, candy
