

Everythings Gonna Be All Right

Chubby Checker

Don't worry baby have no fear
Everything's gonna be all right
Ain't had a job almost a year
Everything's gonna be all right
We owe so much we borrowed before
I guess tomorrow we'll borrow some more
But (better) baby for tonight
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
No money the (bread) is low
Everything's gonna be all right
The landlord's funny I let him know
Everything's gonna be all right
The finance man disconnected the phone
At least we're sure of us a being alone
Yes [?] is out of sight
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right

You the sweetest chic I ever saw
How come you give me such a mother-in-law

Don't worry baby have no fear
Everything's gonna be all right
Because your lovin' daddy's here
Everything's gonna be all right
You said you're missin' your kisses before
Till you ain't missin' your kisses no more
Come on baby hold be tight
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
