

Summer Heat

Chunk! No, Captain Chunk!

Hey kids drop your pen, cause there will be no rain anymore.
Summer holiday is the reward.
Everyday, remembering this bay, I would like to go
To the beach, another sunny coast.

Everything I need is the water and the sun,
Forgetting the time and having fun.
On the beach where I am lying, with my feet in the sand,
My mind is cleared by the ocean's sound.

Have you ever take the time to enjoy the sound of the breaking
waves around?
Have you ever dreamt of an empty sunny place to admire the nature's grace?

The Summer time is the reward,
This sunny time is on the coast.

Everything I need is the water and the sun,
Forgetting the time and having fun.
On the beach where I am lying, with my feet in the sand,
My mind is cleared by the ocean's sound.

Have you ever take the time to enjoy the sound of the breaking
waves around?
Have you ever dreamt of an empty sunny place to admire the nature's
grace?

The Summer time is the reward,
This sunny time is on the coast.

My feet in the sand, the ocean sound.
The water, the sun, The nature's around.
I forget everything and I enjoy all these things I love.
I feel like the only man in the world.

Have you ever take the time to enjoy the sound of the breaking
waves around?
Have you ever dreamt of an empty sunny place to admire the nature's grace?
