

Best Love Song

Cimorelli

Christina hey!
Katherine!
Lisa!
Amy!
Lauren!
Dani!
Turn up the bass, turn up the treble.
I'm about to take it to a whole another level!
Dj turn off what you're playing,
I want the whole world to hear what i'm saying!
Because this boy means so much to me,
And now we're on the floor and he's hold me.
And if I wanna let him know
It's gonna be better than what they do on the radio!

It's gotta be the crunkest
It's gotta be the loudest
It's gotta be the best love song he ever heard in his life
I gotta tell him how I feel
I gotta let him hear, the best love song he ever heard in his life
No need for me to write it, I just gotta picture him smiling,
And if you feel that way, go ahead and kiss your baby
Now we've got the whole stadium in love like hey, hey...

Turn up the lights, give me a mic
I'm about to sign it to him just how he likes.
Jump off the stage, oooh wee, bombs away.
Crowd surfing all the way... Kowabunga!
You know it's right, just do the wave,
Break it down let the know earthquake
And if you wanna be with me
Put your hands in the air, show me that energy

It's gotta be the crunkest
It's gotta be the loudest
It's gotta be the best love song he ever heard in his life
I gotta tell him how I feel
I gotta let him hear, the best love song he ever heard in his life
No need for me to write it, I just gotta picture him smiling,
And if you feel that way, go ahead and kiss your baby
Now we've got the whole stadium in love like hey, hey...

Homie kiss your girl
Shorty kiss your man
We can see you on the kissing cam
Now show me some love
Show me some love
Now look her in the eye, say baby I love you
I never put no one above you
And if you feel that way
Go ahead and kiss your baby
And now we've got the whole stadium in love like hey, hey...

And if you feel that way
Go ahead and kiss your baby
And now we've got the whole stadium in love like hey, hey...
Eh, eh, eh, eh

Oh, oh, oh
