Sparkle Lipstick

Oh God, it's got to be time for this
Moving close for that very first kiss

Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick

And did you catch me staring at your breasts?
I'm just wondering when we're going to get undressed

Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick

But you're so quiet that I've started wondering whether
If, honey, you and I are going to sleep together
The mood is right and I think you might
But I don't want to spoil it all now

But as I hang our coats up on the pegs
You keep self consciously crossing your legs

Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick
Your sparkle lipstick

But you're so quiet that I've started wondering whether
If, honey, you and I are going to sleep together
The signs are right and I think you might
But I don't want to spoil it all now
